

Digital Services Act

The Digital Services Act (“DSA”) went into effect in February 2024. Ironclad is subject to the DSA as a hosting service because we store information provided by our customers that use the Ironclad platform.

Ironclad’s Terms of Service explain the restrictions on the use of Ironclad’s platform. Ironclad monitors compliance with the Terms of Service. Users of Ironclad’s platform may reach out to privacy@ironcladhq.com if the user believes any content on the platform is illegal.

To date, Ironclad has not received any content removal orders or notices of illegal content from third parties. Upon receipt of the foregoing, Ironclad will update this page accordingly and add a transparency report to security.ironcladapp.com.

Ironclad’s privacy team (privacy@ironcladhq.com) serves as the point of contact for communications with government authorities.
